

I am asking that the FCC please not implement any proposal that would lessen the current effect of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. The introduction of this measure has made my family life more meaningful and much calmer due to the lessening of these interruptions. The laws have made the dinner hour one of much greater worth than before the Indiana laws were enacted. Why must this be a Federal issue. Let each state decide its own matters or life style....

Thanks you

Art Hegewald